Is tailoring a good career option?

Many career options are available to people with a sewing or tailoring background. The tailoring industry will never die until mankind stops wearing clothes. Tailoring is one of those industries that might have a dip based on global and local political or financial situations, but the industry will never grounded to zero.

Evolution of the Fashion Industry with Globalization and Digitization

More importantly, there are enormous boosts and earning opportunities in the tailoring and fashion designing industry from the era of globalization. Globalization ushered the path of cross-cultural integration, which immediately affected the beauty and fashion industry. The present digital era has accelerated that integration, opening numerous scopes for fashion designers and apparel designers. As a result, the tailoring industry has seen unforeseen growth in terms of changes in fashion trends. The trends are changing not only with changing seasons but also with changing months, sometimes days. In this modern age where geography is no bar, there is a never before synthesis between the art and culture of the Western world and the Indian legacy. Thanks to the injection of Western-style statements in the Indian fashion trends, this fashion era has opened ample opportunities for those in the tailoring profession. Welcome to this modern world of Dress Design and Fashion Design.

Please read our article "Why should I learn tailoring?" to understand the career after completion of our basic tailoring course or any tailoring course for beginners.

How to open a tailoring business?

A lot of people dream of starting their own business but don't know where to start. We will guide you if you're interested in starting a tailoring business. Our expertise extends to every facet of commencing and managing a tailoring or boutique business, beginning with the initial conceptualization to managing a successful boutique or tailoring business. We have plenty of free how-to guides readily available to facilitate the establishment of your very own boutique. If you need to build a website for a tailoring business or a mobile app, we stand prepared to lend a helping hand.

What is the average income of a tailor in India?

Are you thinking of becoming a tailor? Or are you already a tailor and want to know how much you can earn?

How Much a Tailor Earns in India?

Tailoring is a skilled trade, and the average tailor in India earns a decent wage. However, many factors can affect how much a tailor earns, such as experience, location, and type of work. An average tailor in your locality can earn from 20k to a few lakhs INR monthly based on the location, skill sets and competition in the locality. The income also varies based on the time and month of the year. During Durga Puja in West Bengal, especially in Kolkata, few tailors get orders up to a value of a few lakhs. Those tailors outsource their orders to workers with lower wages.

Earning in Other Tailoring Profession

Apart from being a tailor, many tailoring occupations exist in the industry. If you follow our Facebook page, there are many Job offers for Sewing Machine Operators(SMO) whose starting salary varies from 8k to 20k INR. Many small or medium-sized garment companies or furniture companies build sofas, curtains etc., where they need sewing machine operators. Apart from that, there are requirements for apparel designers in small or medium-sized boutiques where the salary is higher than SMO.

Earn by Opening Your Own Business

Suppose you want to start your own business and do not have any capital in hand. In that case, we recommend completing a basic tailoring course and getting hired by any garment company or boutique where you will get industry-level experience. You will also get the chance to save some money from your salary. After getting one or two years of valuable experience, you can open your boutique with the capital you have saved. Starting a tailoring business is easy in the digital era, where you have social media and other channels to market your product or service. Disha Fashion Institute provides all the necessary guidance and assistance to market your product or service online.

Can I learn tailoring online?

You can learn tailoring online. Tailoring skills can easily be learned sitting at home.

This is an excellent option for those who don't have the time or money to attend the tailoring class physically. Also, those not living in Kolkata cannot visit the school physically. It was a widespread belief that tailoring could not be learned online. We get many queries asking whether tailoring can be learned online. The good news is that, yes, you can learn tailoring online! There are plenty of resources available that can help you hone your skills.

Our Journey of Online Tailoring Classes

We started our journey of online tailoring classes during the Covid. Covid taught us many things. When we started this in 2020, we were unsure whether this initiative would succeed or fail. But, with time, this has been proved to be a bigger success than our physical classroom training. There are plenty of students from all parts of India who join our online tailoring classes and enroll in basic tailoring courses, advanced tailoring courses, fashion designing, and textile designing courses. You can check the Google reviews by our online students. Those reviews testify to our successful journey as an online basic to advanced tailoring course provider.

Hands-On Machine Operations

It is crucial to remember that the hands-on aspect of operating a sewing machine cannot be entirely taught through online classes. However, our classes focus on imparting crucial knowledge such as the cutting process, measurements, and calculations. This approach gives students a clear understanding of how to cut fabric properly and where to sew it. We recommend that if you purchase a Usha or Singer sewing machine, you take advantage of the machine demo offered by Usha or Singer representatives. This will allow you to receive a personalized, in-depth demonstration of the machine's operation and capabilities.

How did tailoring emerge as a means for woman empowerment in India?

Tailoring can be a lucrative and empowering occupation for women in India, as it allows them to work from home and have flexible hours, which is especially important for women with families. Many women who take up tailoring have been able to increase their income and improve their financial independence. The following video explains how Disha Fashion Institute supports many women who want to pursue tailoring as a career and have been able to make a significant impact on their communities.

How much does it cost to learn tailoring?

Are you interested in learning how to tailor clothes and start your own boutique or tailoring shop? You may be wondering about the cost of completing a basic tailoring course.

Course Fee

Disha Fashion Institute offers a basic tailoring course for only 700/- per month, making it a reasonable option compared to other institutions. If you're looking for a certificate, it will cost an additional 1500/- examination and certification fee at the end of the course. This certificate may be necessary if you're seeking a tailoring job in a manufacturing company, fashion house, or government enterprise. However, if you're only seeking knowledge to set up your own business, you can skip the certification.

Cost of Fabric and Other Tailoring Tools

Apart from the course fee, you'll need to buy cotton fabric for practice and some tailoring tools which can be bought from our school. The fabric cost is high, but you can use your old cotton clothes for practice, and while learning, you'll be making clothes for yourself and your family members, which saves on buying new clothes. The major cost for learning tailoring is buying a tailoring machine. The cost of a machine can vary greatly depending on the type of machine and its features. It's important to buy a machine based on your actual needs and not overspend on a machine with features you won't use. If you already have an iron base sewing machine, you can fit a motor for heavy use instead of buying a new machine. There are many aspects to consider before buying a machine, and we're here to help you make the best choice. So, if you're interested in pursuing a career in tailoring, we encourage you to join our basic tailoring course at Disha Fashion Institute.

With a reasonable course fee and proper guidance from our experts, you can gain valuable skills to start your own tailoring business and achieve financial independence.

How many months will it take to learn tailoring?

If you're thinking about becoming a tailor, you might wonder how long it will take to learn the trade. While it depends on your learning style and experiences, most people can expect to spend at least a few months mastering the basics of tailoring. The standard length of the basic tailoring course Disha Fashion Institute offers is 6 months. Most of the students can complete the sewing class syllabus within 6 months to get a tailoring certificate. But if you need more time, you can always continue your classes by paying the same monthly fee.

Who should join the basic tailoring course?

Anyone who does not even know how to thread a needle or tie a knot can join this basic tailoring course, as this is a meticulously designed tailoring course for beginners. This course is useful for experienced tailors as well because it has advanced men's and women's dresses like Nehru Kurta to Bengali Kurta and Pipin Blouse to Collar Blouse. Go through the cutting and tailoring course syllabus.

Why do you need a certificate in Tailoring?

A certificate in tailoring or stitching is a must-have certificate for those who want to pursue a career in the fashion industry. This course will give you the necessary skills and knowledge to become a successful tailor or dressmaker. Completing the basic tailoring course opens up exciting opportunities for you. With the diploma in tailoring certificate in the bag, you can pursue a rewarding career as a tailor or fashion designer or even start your own tailoring business.

How do you become a skilled tailor?

Sometimes, it takes years of practice to become a skilled tailor; sometimes, you become a skilled tailor in a few months if you are trained professionally. You must have an eye for detail, be able to work with various fabrics, and have a good sense of color and design. You must also be able to sew accurately and quickly. If you want to become a tailor, our basic tailoring course is for you. We will walk you through the steps of becoming a skilled tailor. Go through the cutting and tailoring course syllabus you will be taught in our basic tailoring course. If you practice properly, at the end of the basic tailoring course, you'll be able to start creating your own stunning garments as well as take orders from others within six months. Please keep in mind that becoming a skilled tailor is not only able to cut and sew a fabric. You will not be a good tailor even if you are perfect in taking body measurements. There are other aspects as well to being a good tailor. You should have a good sense of color following the color theory. You need to have a good sense of design and be familiar with the types of fabrics. You will be trained in everything in the diploma in tailoring offered by Disha Fashion Institute.
